

BE AWARE!

PROTECT YOUR ASSETS FROM SOMEONE YOU DON'T KNOW OR FROM SOMEONE YOU DO KNOW

Bank of the West cordially invites you to attend a complimentary seminar packed with useful information designed to protect you and your assets! Be Aware, Protect Your Assets is co-sponsored by Bank of the West and the Casa Grande Public Library. This seminar is designed to help seniors better identify the warning signs of financial abuse. Learn information to protect yourself or your loved ones from becoming a victim of fraud.

When: Thursday, November 20, 2008

Seminar: 10am – 12pm

Free Lunch: 12pm – 1pm

Where: Casa Grande Public Library

449 North Dry Lake Street

Casa Grande, AZ 85222

(520) 421-8710

Host: Tim Siefertman, SVP - Regional Manager & Ami Posey, VP - Branch Manager
Bank of the West

Keynote

Speaker: Jenefer Duane, Founder and CEO - Elder Financial Protection Network

Panelists:

Christine Powell, Assistant Attorney General, Child and Family Protection Division

Tina Dannenfelser, Manager, Adult Protective Services, Arizona Department of Economic Security

Jan Cardoza, Ombudsman, Long-Term Care, State of Arizona

Robert C. Brown, Special Assistant County Attorney, Pinal County Attorney's Office

Seating is limited. Please call Katie Chase at (520) 544-4700 x124 to RSVP by November 14.

Enjoy this valuable seminar, free lunch and a raffle with terrific prizes like a document shredder from local merchants. In addition, Bank of the West will have paper shredders on site, so bring documents that need shredding and shred them at the event at no cost!

BANK OF THE WEST

