

WE WANT YOU!

"CASE"

[Communities Against Senior Exploitation]

Invites you to help make a difference by attending a "Train the Trainer" Orientation program about Financial Elder Abuse

Friday, February 20, 2009

JFK University

100 Ellinwood Way, Pleasant Hill- Room S304

10:00 a.m. to noon

No charge

Elder Financial Abuse is one of the fastest growing and most devastating crimes facing our senior population. Help protect your community by learning how to proactively teach others about recognizing the forms of this increasing epidemic and the ways in which elders can protect themselves from becoming future victims

Please contact A-Maze-ing Solutions at 925-755-3686 no later than February 18th of your plans to attend. Also, be prepared to provide your contact information including your email address.

Sponsored by: Contra Costa County District Attorney, JFK University Elder Law Clinic, Contra Costa for Every Generation, Elder Financial Protection Network, California Department of Consumer Affairs, A-Maze-ing Solutions Foundation, East County Senior Coalition, City of Richmond Commission on Aging